

Valuation Days

We regularly hold Valuation Days at our Cambridge Saleroom and at our Estate Agents offices throughout the region.

They are all on a 'no appointment necessary' basis & our team of Valuers and Specialists are on hand to offer free verbal valuations and offer advice for sale. We cover furniture, clocks, ceramics and glass, paintings, prints, sporting and guns, oriental items, silver and vertu, jewellery, wine and books & are able to consult on a variety of other items as well.

If you have multiple or specific items which you would like to be valued we would suggest contacting us to make an appointment to make sure the appropriate valuer is available and avoid disappointment.

We are also able to offer advice via photographs either in person, by post or direct by email to fine.art@cheffins.co.uk
